Maqai Newsletter

(Tiseba) December 2014

Ni Sa Bula (A warm welcome from the Directors – Angie, Shaw and Dave) to the latest edition of the Maqai 'Bula' Times. We hope this reaches you all (Village chiefs, elders, staff and shareholders) in good health and spirit. Marau na kerisimasi!! Merry Christmas.

Guests

The Cunningham family from NZ, who are shareholders in the business had an amazing stay, and wanted to say Vinaka to all the staff. They commented to a director they had noticed that the bures were always swept out, and nicely made up, with a little flower each day on the bed which added a welcoming touch. They also said the food was absolutely delicious, there was heaps of it and it was always hot-YUMMY!! The lounge and bar area was inviting and welcoming, and always well maintained.

Naviivi Village

We had some guests from Australia who were electricians and builders who kindly volunteered to install solar power in the local school, free of charge. Other guests have been enjoying visits to the school and enjoy meeting the wonderful children.

Two of our latest Trip Advisor latest reviews:

Paradise

It's so beautiful. The welcome was really friendly, and we had a nice bungalow close to the sea with ensuite, the meals taste wonderful. It is the paradise! The travel to come here is long, but it is worthwhile! All are so friendly and helpful. The Kava sessions in the evening with the locals are really funny.

The Real Fiji Paradise

Excellent vacation to get away from it all!! This place is beautiful, with wonderful staff. Perfect on the beach accommodation, with great meals with the rest of the guests in a homely setting that makes you forget that the staff are actually working there. Many a night was spent sitting around with the staff and other guests while they played and sang into the wee hours of the morning. It was like hanging out with a bunch of old friends on an idyllic beach paradise. This is how all vacations are meant to be!!

From the Directors

Au maru vakalevu (we are very happy to receive these wonderful reviews), well done to everyone. We thank all the staff at Maqai and Naviivi village for supporting Maqai, and we really value your feedback and concerns on any issues or ways we could improve the resort. The resort is a credit to all your hard work. Honesty is something we value very highly. Shaw and Dave would like to particularly say Vinaka to Ange for all her dedicated work throughout the year. It is so greatly appreciated Ange. You're a shining star!!

Vanuinui vinaka ki na siga ni kua (Have a nice day)

Did you know?

There are 322 islands in Fiji and over 500 small islets. Around 110 of these islands are inhabited, although 87% of the population lives on the two biggest islands Viti Levu and Vanua Levu. The islands are spread over 194,000 km² (75,000 mi²) of which just 10% is land.
