Is a Fijian wedding recognised in my country?

Fijian weddings are recognised worldwide, you will need to apply to change your name with Births, Deaths and Marriages once you have been sent your official wedding certificate. Once the marriage has taken place the signed original certificates must be given to the wedded couple while the second certificate is forwarded with the license to the registry within 7 days. Your official wedding certificate will be emailed to you approximately 4 weeks later.

Wedding bookings are not accepted on Sundays, Religious or public holidays.

How to apply for a marriage licence in Fiji?

Marriage certificates are available from Head Office in Suva, or Nadi or Taveuni. The registration offices are open from 8-3pm Monday – Friday. This license is valid for 28 days effective from the date of issue and within this period the marriage must be officiated on the day stated on the licence.

Applicants from Asian nationals who are named herein: Chinese/ Philippines/ Pakistan/ Korea/ India are to apply 1 month in advance for their marriage licence. Some countries also need further documentation – we will advise you.

How much does a marriage licence cost?

Application for a special licence F$ 20.25. A TAPA design marriage certificate is also available for F$ 15.50. There is also a charge for transfers to/from the Registrars office if applying for your licence in Taveuni.

Do I need witnesses?
